

Zanders Sporting Goods Receives TriStar's “Distributor of the Year” Award for Second Year in a Row

Las Vegas, NV (January 25, 2019) – Zanders Sporting Goods, a national distributor located in Sparta, Illinois, has received the TriStar Arms “Distributor of the Year” award for 2018 at this year’s SHOT Show in Las Vegas. This is the second year in a row that Zanders has received this prestigious award.

“We are once again honored and humbled to be recognized by TriStar Arms, a top-level firearm company,” remarked Stefanie Zanders, Vice President and Chief Operating Officer of Zanders. “Receiving this award for the second year in a row means a lot to us as a company and solidifies our belief that we truly have the best employees. Without them and their hard work, we wouldn’t be able to provide such a high level of customer service to our clients. Our clients come first and their satisfaction has always been our number one goal.”

This award is bestowed upon distributors who exhibit high levels of product management and knowledge as well as exemplary customer service.

For more information about Zanders’ line of TriStar products, dealers are encouraged to contact their sales representative. Zanders full line of products is also available at their website: www.gzanders.com.
